

Biography

David Freund

After receiving his MFA from SUNY Buffalo through the Visual Studies Workshop, David Freund taught at Pratt Institute and Ramapo College of New Jersey, where he chaired its Visual Arts program. In 1978 he received a National Endowment of Arts grant to photograph gas station environments nationwide. His work has been exhibited at Light Gallery in New York and the George Eastman House in Rochester, and is held in the collections of MOMA, the Corcoran Gallery of Art, and the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston. Freund was a photography consultant for the CAPS program, and a photography judge for the Fulbright-Hays scholarship program. A member of the Society for Photographic Education for thirty years, Freund has given various presentations at National Conferences and was on the Board of Directors for six years.
